

KELAMIX Zn

KELAMIX Zn is a highly soluble zinc chelate in the form of microgranules, specifically designed to prevent and correct manganese deficiencies in any type of crop.

CHARACTERISTICS

Due to its composition, KELAMIX Zn is indicated for foliar application. It can also be applied directly to the soil through any irrigation system.

The KELAMIX Zn deficiency preventer and corrector is certified as CE FERTILIZER.

BURÉS PROFESIONAL guarantees the following wealth:

Zinc (Zn) soluble in water: 15%

EDTA chelated Zinc (Zn): 15%

Chelating agent: EDTA

| CROP | DOSE AND INSTRUCTIONS OF USE |
|---|---|
| CITRUS | By foliar application from 50 to 100 grs. per 100 liters of water. Apply during spring budding, when leaves are 2/3 their size. If the deficiency is very pronounced repeat in the summer sprouting. Using the root route, apply 4 to 8 grams per tree. |
| FRUITS | In foliar application from 50 to 100 grs. per 100 liters of water. Apply throughout the vegetative cycle. Using the root route, apply 4 to 8 grams per tree. |
| VEGETABLES | In foliar application from 50 to 100 grs. per 100 liters of water. In application to the soil we recommend 1 to 2 kg. per hectare, repeating 4 or 5 weeks later. |
| The recommended doses are for guidance only, the result of different field experiences and trials. The composition of the product in its original container is guaranteed | |

TERMS OF SERVICE

The KELAMIX Zn product is supplied in 5Kg drums.